The Palapa Society, A.C. provides a 21st century education for middle and high school students, and quality educational programs and cultural experiences for local children and their families to become the future leaders of Todos Santos BCS, Mexico, and the world.

THE PALAPA SCHOOL
- Middle School Opened 2017
- High School Will Open 2019
- 20:1 Student-to-Teacher ratio
- 100% SEP Compliant
- 21st century education
- 60 Volunteers contributing in-kind services and expertise to all programs
- $2,400 US/yr Palapa School tuition
- $4,200 US/yr Actual cost per student
- 1150+ Palapa School, public school, and university scholarships distributed since 2003

CHILDREN’S PROGRAMS
- 150+ Children study English in the Puente program each year
- 200+ Children studied Art after school since 2007
- 170 Children have library cards

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS
- 9,000+ English and Spanish books in the Biblioteca Elena Poniatowska
- 60 Volunteers contributing in-kind services and expertise to all programs
- 50+ Adults/year enroll in the Adult English program

Our Impact by the Numbers:

2019 Budgeted Revenue
- $404,322

2019 Budgeted Expenses
- $404,322

- Marketing & Fundraising: 9% ($34,000)
- Administration: 7% ($28,833)
- Building & Property Maintenance: 7% ($28,833)
- Palapa School Program Expenses: 12% ($47,333)
- Palapa School Staff Salary and Expenses: 47% ($190,266)

Learn More at www.PalapaSociety.org